Ombudsman submitted 2011 annual report

According to the Article 14 of the Constitutional law of the Republic of Azerbaijan on “The Commissioner for Human Rights of the Republic of Azerbaijan”, annual report of the Ombudsman should be submitted to the President and should be sent to the Azerbaijan Parliament, Cabinet of Ministers, Constitutional Court, Supreme Court and Prosecutor General after finishing current year not being two months late.

Annual report has been sent to the President of the Republic of Azerbaijan and to the other state bodies in accordance with Constitutional Law on 29 February 2012.

The issues of restoration of violated human rights by officials, state and local authorities, preventing human rights violations activities in this field, results of legal education and scientific researches, partnership with government bodies, public and mass media, international relations enshrined in the Constitution of the Republic of Azerbaijan and in the international treaties as well as generalized proposals and recommendations of the Commissioner on human rights have been represented in the 2011 annual report on “Status of providing and preventing human rights in Azerbaijan”.

It has been considered the annual report to be heard at the session of Azerbaijan Parliament on 7 March.

The report will be published after the hearing for public awareness.
