

International Ombudsman Institute
Institut International de l'Ombudsman
Instituto Internacional del Ombudsman

27 September, 2013

Re: Training for African Anglophone Ombudsman Organisations, Dar-es-Salaam from 2 – 4 January, 2014

Dear colleague,

A three-day training for investigation officers from African Ombudsman Organisations will take place in Dar-es-Salaam Tanzania from 2nd – 4th January, 2014. The event will be hosted by the Tanzanian IOI member institution (Commission for Human Rights and Good Governance) in cooperation with the IOI and the African Ombudsman Association (AOMA).

The training will be conducted by renowned trainers from the University of Dar-es-Salaam and the Tanzania High Court who have enough knowledge and experience in ombudsman work and administrative justice complaints handling. It will be held in English and consists of a total of nine sessions on Ombudsman's role, the rule of law, accountability, good investigation practice, and use of systemic investigation to bring about transparency in governments. For more details on the programme as well as organisational matters, please see the information below.

The training will be provided free of charge but travel and accommodation costs will be borne by the participants themselves. For the smooth organisation and efficient planning of the event, the nomination letter is sent and we request you to register by 20th December, 2013.

Should you have any further questions regarding the training event, please do not hesitate to contact the Commission for Human Rights and Good Governance Executive Secretary through e-mail address mary.massay@chragg.go.tz, chragg@chragg.go.tz, the Administrative Justice Department Director through e-mail address fatuma.muya@chragg.go.tz or Principal Investigation Officer vincent.mbombo@chragg.go.tz .

The organizers wish you a successful training workshop and enjoyable stay in Dar-es-Salaam.